

Pastor George McDearmon and his wife of 50 years, Debra, are natives of Richmond, Virginia. George's youth was largely focused upon athletics and his church. Coming to faith in Christ in 1967 he eventually went on to college and to Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas. He was employed by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes during the seminary years while Debra taught in public school. George graduated in December 1976 and shortly thereafter moved to upstate New York where he served as pastor of the Ballston Lake Baptist Church for 46 years. The couple are now members of the Reformed Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia. They have two children and seven grandchildren. The Lord continues to provide George opportunities for service and especially in pastoral training overseas.
