Alan Dunn came to faith as a child, having been raised in a Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts from Cedarville College [1975]; a Master's of Arts in Humanities from Western Kentucky University [1978]; a Master's of Divinity from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary [1982]; and a Doctor of Ministry from Ligonier Academy [2014].

He entered the pastoral ministry in 1982 and has served Christ at Grace Covenant Baptist Church in Flemington, NJ, since its inception in 1985. Alan has had opportunities to preach and teach the Word in several countries over the course of his ministry.

Alan and Patricia were married in 1977 and raised four children. Their oldest son was killed in a motorcycle accident in 2024; two are married, and one is engaged. They have one grandson - so far.
